

Paris, 2016, April 27

José is a wonderful artist according to me. His talent is based on exchange and complicity with the audience. Generous and gifted

I have been working with him for almost 10 years and I am still amazed by his creativity. Imagine a comic artistic structure inspired by Chaplin, Marceau and Keaton, and you can picture what Jose can bring to a show.

I will not say too much about his human qualities, those which make the comic artistic dimension; I mean, somebody able to step back from the violent reality of the world to make it happier.

It is not about being rich or famous, it is just about Art. This feeds me every single day.

Acrobat, clown, actor, artistic director, Jose can do everything.

I really hope that we will share many more adventures together
